HARTSFIELD-JACKSON
ATLANTA INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT
ONE FLEW SOUTH

This fine eatery touts itself as "the first upscale dining experience at the world's busiest airport." And that would be correct. One Flew South whisks you away from the crowds into a serene space. If your schedule allows you to concentrate on the menu rather than the clock, indulge in pecan-dusted scallops, thyme-roasted pork belly, and a classy cocktail. There are to-go options if you aren't lucky enough to have a long layover. Look for One Flew South in Concourse E. oneflewsouthatl.com
